Healthy Home Resources Receives Grable Foundation Grant

Pittsburgh, PA, Tuesday March 18, 2008 -

On Tuesday, March 20, 2008, Healthy Home Resources was awarded a $50,000 grant from The A.J. Palumbo and Sigismunda Charitable Trust, for a one-year period, to support Healthy Home Resources AT HOME, Asthma Trigger Home Evaluation, Program.

The grant will help support costs incurred through program operation for a period of one year, beginning immediately through December 2008. The AT HOME Program is designed to deal with a variety of objects that can trigger asthma attacks, including dust mite and cockroach, rat and mouse, cat and dog allergens, mold, pollen and dust. The six-month program includes five in-home visits, where Healthy Home Resources monitors allergen trigger levels, provides personalized education to the child with asthma and his/her family, and provides the family with supplies and services valued at over $1,000 which can include a HEPA vacuum cleaner, HEPA air purifier, cleaning supplies, allergen bed covers, and professional services such as pest management and air duct and carpet cleaning.
